

All the Hebrews feared to fight Goliath, but the young David went forth to meet the giant and killed him with a stone from his sling.